

Welcome Celine A. Quinio

Christian Brothers Conference is happy to welcome our new Director of Communications, Celine A. Quinio. Celine joins the Conference Staff after working in Communications with the Institute of the Mercy Sisters of the Americas in Silver Spring, Maryland. In that capacity she produced Mercy publication Vita, designed brochures, ad materials and reports. Celine has also managed and designed websites for the Mercy Sisters Institute office and in Burlingame, California.

Celine also has edited a series of communications and books including Partners in the Between Time by Kathryn Grant that was on the reading list for our Regional Mission and Association Assembly last November.

A native of the Philippines, Celine Quinio was the publisher and editor of Teen Magazine, a value-formation magazine and was head of publications for Central Bank of the Philippines.

Celine is the mother of four daughters, one of whom is a freshman at St. John's College High School in Washington, DC. Celine's family has long time Lasallian connections. Her husband, Rodolfo Quinio, attended De La Salle Christian Brothers Schools from kindergarten through university in the Philippines and her brother-in-law is a surgeon at the De La Salle University Hospital in Manila.

Welcome Celine.

Celine Quinio can be reached at cquinio@cbconf.org